Which one is Authentic?

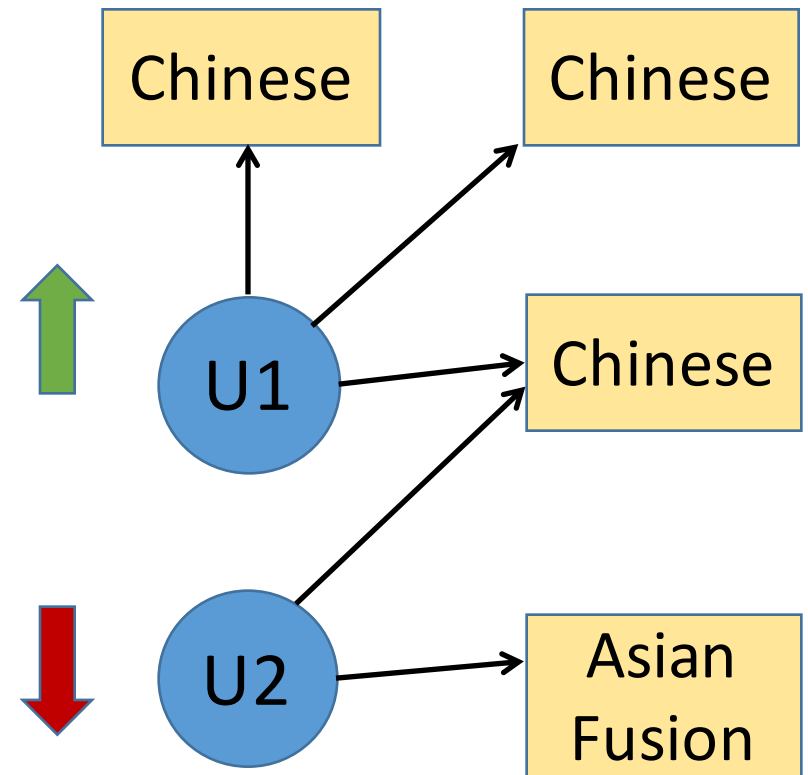

Social Network of Yelp Reviews

- Restaurants (businesses) and Reviewers (users) inside community are more similar than outside community
- Goal: Leverage the community vote in reweighting star ratings for authenticity

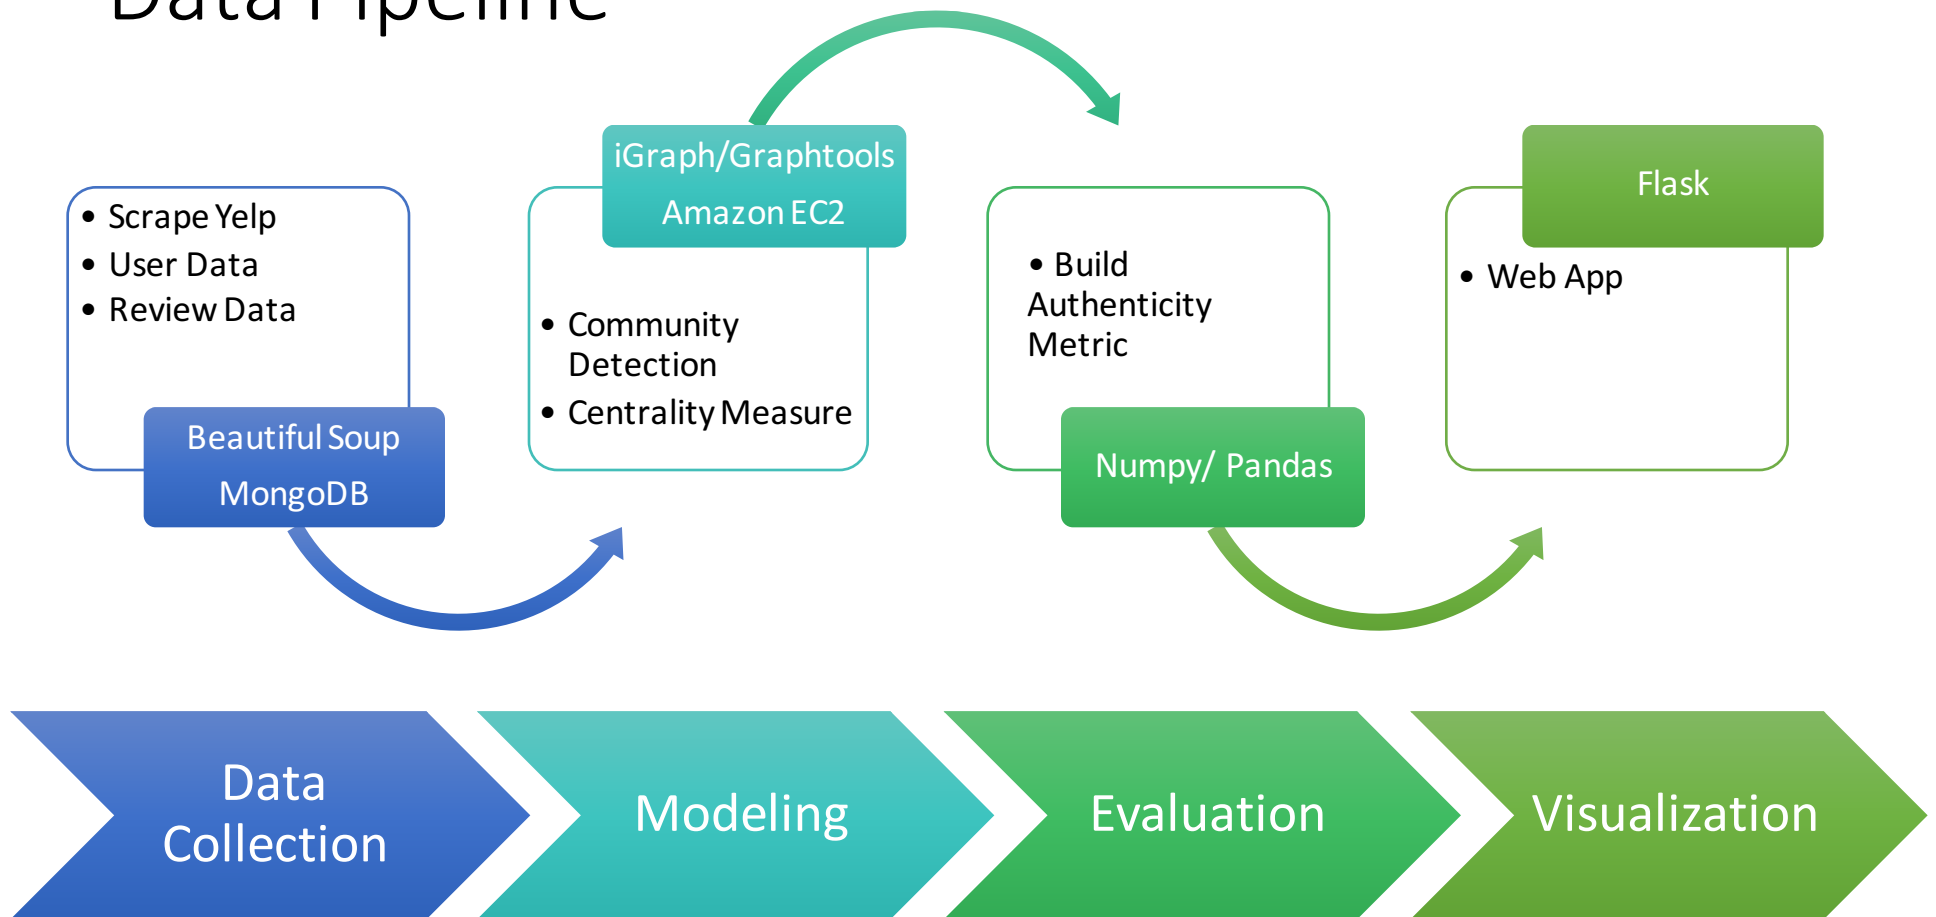

Adjusted Yelp Rating for Authenticity

- Users who have rated one cuisine with higher frequency receive higher weighting for their Yelp star rating
- Users who never rated or rated one cuisine with lower frequency receive lower weighting for their Yelp star rating
- Readjust Yelp rating based on qualified users

Conclusions and Further Work

- Social Network Graphs are versatile and can provide significant insight on which restaurants are likely more authentic
- Many areas to improve this work. Start by expanding the network of restaurants and work on user-user connections.
- A/B Test the Adjusted Rating
